FARMERS PROBLEMS

By A. W. Drake, Mosquero, N.M.

There is a great open field for farmers and common people, besides farmers there are armies of bankers, merchants, newspaper men, ministers and people in nearly every walk of life that are real fraternal brothers, the friend or stranger that we meet, that looks at us from his soul the one that has the smile or how do you do, that everyone loves, there are only a sprinkling of the sarcastic class, or in other words, the people that are not real friends to humanity.

Some of the few spend sleepless nights trying to study some scheme to get the money that you have worked hard for, without any hard manual labor on his own part. There are different classes, modes and methods of this bunch, and they seem to have jewels in their minds but poison in their hearts. By combining our forces of farmers and common people and one great fraternal order of christian people, we could be in a position to protect each other.

We believe as we have often heard that the eye is the index to the soul if we will keep the soul in tune with the divine love there will be no bad ant cropping while we will not live perfect lives we believe that we should ever try to measure up to the standard, but we are human and months and years pass, we can only try. As the days, weeks, only look back on a life full of mistakes and blunders. We can only say God forgive us and make new resolutions and bind ourselves together in christian love, instead of being separated by some weak little apostles. Some we are afraid are only hindering the great fraternal order that not only lasts while we are doing our little bandering here but will last while the soul lives on. The bible says except we become as little children we cannot enter the Kingdom of Heaven. We think sometimes that there is a headstrongness that we should rid ourselves of. If we cannot get on common terms here in the garden, of God where there is so much room, and opportunity to do good, how, about in the home over there, in the city for square. Besides it hinders our progress socially and financially the few days that we have to stay here.

There are many tired men and women in evening of life, that have been cheated out of rest serves. After a life of service and enjoyment that old age deserves. After a life of service the bible says associate yourselves together. Lets believe it. Perhaps this passage like many others is for our good. We naturally crave a little rest for the mind and nerves when age begins to creep upon us. We love to think of the days, and people that have past and gone. Some that played such an important part in our own lives, and compare the past with the present, and picture in our minds the future after we have long been sleeping. We don't really desire to spend our old days in idleness, but keep busy. To many people lay themselves on the shelf and the world goes off and leaves them.

Lets stay in the race, lets stay with the crowd, and not just watch them as they pass. If we do our best we will see christianity bloom as the flowers do when the warm spring rains come.

We will see farmers and common people when they are old be able to take a trip to the old home where their childhood days were spent or the mountains or the sea, or wherever their desire leads them. So our coming together is compulsory for our own common good.

Isn't it funny to learn that we have such a fine highway to Tucumcari and here it has been in existence for years and so many of us did not know of it?
